

What a week we have had here at St. Daniel the Prophet Catholic School! I guess the word is out that last week Fr. McGuire's Hot Shots pulled in a win against Team Dewane. It was close though. They won by one point and a "Hail Mary" shot by Fr. McGuire!

Our 7th grade students wrote essays this week to recognize and celebrate our disabled veterans. They did a great and scholarships will be awarded to three students by the Knights of Columbus.

We had a lot of little saints running around today! A few of them stumped me, but I finally figured out who they were representing!

SPAGHETTI DINNER NEXT SATURDAY AT 5 P.M.! Please see us in the office if you can come. It will be a great evening. I GUARANTEE fantastic spaghetti!

Report cards went out and Fr. McGuire made the rounds to acknowledge the accomplishments of each and every child! We so appreciate him!
